UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
 EX REL. LAURENCE SAKLAD,

Plaintiff,

V.

HENRY R. LEWIS AND VANTAGE
 TRAVEL SERVICE, INC.,

Defendants.

US DISTRICT COURT
 DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS
 CIVIL ACTION NO. 97-10052-MLW

5/1/98
 7-20-98

COMPLAINT OF THE UNITED STATES

The United States of America ("United States" or "the Government"), by and through its undersigned attorneys, alleges as follows for its Complaint in this matter:

INTRODUCTION

1. On January 17, 1997, relator Lawrence Saklad filed a Complaint under the qui tam provisions of the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729 et seq., against defendants Henry R. Lewis and Vantage Travel Service, Inc. The relator's Complaint alleges that the defendants submitted false claims to the United States Postal Service to conceal an obligation to pay or transmit money to the Government.

2. On June 15, 1998, the plaintiff, the United States, filed a Notice of Intervention in this civil action. The United States has thus exercised its right under the False Claims Act to proceed with the action filed by the relator. 31 U.S.C. § 3730(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This action arises under the False Claims Act, as amended, 31 U.S.C. §§ 3729-3733, and at common law. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under 31 U.S.C. § 3730(a) and (b) and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1345.

4. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the defendants pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 3732(a). Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and 31 U.S.C. § 3732(a). Both defendants can be found, reside, and transact business within the district, and the acts that violate the provisions of 31 U.S.C. § 3729 occurred within this district.

THE PARTIES

5. The plaintiff is the United States on behalf of its agency, the United States Postal Service ("Postal Service").

6. Defendant Henry R. Lewis ("Lewis") resides at 393 Commonwealth Avenue, Newton, Massachusetts. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Lewis was chief executive officer of defendant Vantage Travel Service, Inc.

7. Defendant Vantage Travel Service, Inc. ("Vantage") is a for-profit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with its principal place of business at 111 Cypress Street, Brookline, Massachusetts.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

8. At all times relevant to this action, Vantage has been in the commercial mailing business; it conducts fund-raising programs by mail on behalf of nonprofit organizations ("nonprofits"). Under agreements between Vantage and its nonprofit clients, Vantage solicits donations from the nonprofits' members in return for items of nominal value (e.g., calendars or greeting cards).

9. In conducting many such fund-raising programs, Vantage has caused the mail necessary to the program to be delivered by the Postal Service at the special bulk third-class rate ("nonprofit rate").

10. The nonprofit rate, which is determined according to a formula established by Congress, is only available to nonprofit organizations under conditions established by the Postal Service.

11. The nonprofit rate is approximately one-half the regular bulk third-class rate ("standard rate").

12. The Postal Service will not permit mail to be entered at the nonprofit rate if such mail is being sent by a nonprofit that is cooperating with a for-profit company to share the costs, risks, or benefits of the mailing. The Postal Service refers to such a mailing as a "cooperative mailing."

13. The Postal Service will permit mail to be entered at the nonprofit rate if such mail is being sent by a nonprofit that hires a for-profit company, such as Vantage, to conduct the mailing, but only if the relationship between the nonprofit and the for-profit company is that of principal and agent. If the Postal Service determines that the parties share the costs, risks, or benefits of the mailing, the Postal Service will not deem their relationship to be that of principal and agent and, therefore, will not permit the mail to be entered at the nonprofit rate.

14. The Postal Service requires that a nonprofit seeking to enter mail at the nonprofit rate submit, with each mailing, a Postal Service Form 3602 on which the mailer has certified that the mailing does not violate Domestic Mail Manual § 625, which prohibits cooperative mailings at the nonprofit rate. The mailer must also expressly certify on Form 3602 that the mailing is not a cooperative mailing.

15. Since no later than November 1990, the defendants have had knowledge of the Postal Service's prohibition on the entry of cooperative mailings at the nonprofit rate. During an investigation conducted by the Postal Inspection Service in 1990 ("the 1990 investigation") into cooperative mailings in which Vantage was involved, a postal inspector notified Lewis and Vantage that, under the terms of the standard contract ("Program Agreement") governing mailings conducted by Vantage on behalf of its nonprofit clients, those mailings were cooperative and, therefore, ineligible for the nonprofit rate.

16. The postal inspector overseeing the 1990 investigation informed Vantage that mailings conducted under its Program Agreement were cooperative because, under the terms of the Program Agreement, Vantage shared the risks and benefits of such mailings. Specifically, the postal inspector informed Vantage that mailings covered by its Program Agreement were cooperative because of the provision at paragraph 6(c) of the Program Agreement. This provision stated as follows:

In the event that gross collections associated with a PROGRAM are insufficient to cover the expenses and costs. . . then Vantage shall have the right to solicit further known contributions until such shortfall is eliminated[.]

A sample of the Vantage Program Agreement in effect in 1990 is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

17. Prior to being notified, during the 1990 investigation, that mailings under its Program Agreement were cooperative mailings and, thus, ineligible for the nonprofit rate, Vantage had routinely submitted Forms 3602 certifying that such mailings were not cooperative.

18. During the 1990 investigation, the Postal Inspection Service informed Vantage that Vantage would remain ineligible to enter mail at the nonprofit rate until Vantage amended the language of its Program Agreement to eliminate the language quoted in paragraph 17 above, and to require the nonprofits to pay all costs and expenses associated with the program, regardless of the program's success. In response, Vantage amended its Program Agreement and, in late 1991, reported to the Postal Service that its amended Program Agreement complied with the cooperative mail rule.

19. In discussions with the postal inspector overseeing the 1990 investigation, Vantage acknowledged being aware of the cooperative mail rule. Vantage also specifically acknowledged being aware that any contractual arrangement with a nonprofit that shielded the nonprofit from financial responsibility for an unsuccessful fund-raising program would be a cooperative mailing and, thus, ineligible for the nonprofit rate. To settle claims asserted by the Postal Service, Vantage and certain of its clients subsequently reimbursed the Postal Service for postage deficiencies resulting from improper use of the nonprofit rate.

20. At that time, Vantage also provided, as samples of its amended Program Agreement, copies of Program Agreements executed in late 1991 by Vantage and specific nonprofits. Vantage explained that mailings conducted under the amended Program Agreement were not cooperative mailings because of the terms set forth in paragraph 6(c) of the amended Program Agreement.

Paragraph 6(c) stated as follows:

In the event that gross collections associated with a program are insufficient to cover the expenses and costs [of the program], then the [nonprofit] will be billed by Vantage for the shortfall, which will be due and payable within 30 days of invoice.

A sample of the amended Program Agreement provided by Vantage to the Postal Service in 1991 is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

21. Because paragraph 6(c) allocated the financial risk of an unsuccessful program to the nonprofit alone and did not give Vantage the right to continue a fund-raising program in the event that the program's revenues did not cover its costs, the Postal Service believed that mailings covered by the amended Program Agreement were eligible for the nonprofit rate.

22. However, Vantage immediately modified its Program Agreement by executing "secret side agreements" with provisions that superseded paragraph 6 of the Program Agreement. (A sample of Vantage's secret side agreements is attached hereto as Exhibit C.) Those provisions included the following language:

In the event that proceeds from the program are insufficient to cover all program costs (including postage and bank charges, if applicable), Vantage . . . shall have the right to continue the fund-raising program until such shortfall is eliminated.

Thus, Vantage immediately modified its Program Agreement to include the very provision that the Postal Service had informed Vantage made mailings under the Program Agreement ineligible for the nonprofit rate.

23. In addition to modifying its Program Agreements as described in paragraph 23 above, Vantage guaranteed its nonprofit clients that all mailings covered by a secret side agreement would be conducted with no financial risk to the nonprofit. Vantage guaranteed that in the event of an unsuccessful fund-raising program, Vantage would absorb all financial losses. Vantage communicated this guarantee both verbally, before execution of a secret side agreement, and by including the following provision in the secret side agreement:

To prevent the [nonprofit] from reporting any financial liability, Vantage . . . agrees not to invoice the [nonprofit] until sufficient funds are collected to cover the relevant invoice.

This provision, by itself, also rendered mailings covered by Vantage's Program Agreement cooperative, because it shifts the risk of an unsuccessful program from the nonprofit to Vantage. Had the Postal Service been aware of this provision, or of Vantage's no-risk guarantee, it would not have permitted mailings covered by the secret side agreement to be entered at the nonprofit rate.

24. Vantage concealed its secret side agreements from the Postal Service. At the time that Vantage provided the Postal Service with samples of Program Agreements that Vantage had amended, ostensibly to comply with the cooperative mail rule, Vantage had already executed secret side agreements modifying those Program Agreements. In fact, Vantage had executed secret side agreements modifying the sample "complying" Program Agreements on the very same day that Vantage executed the Program Agreements themselves. Vantage did not provide those secret side agreements to the Postal Service.

25. Between 1991 and 1997, Lewis and Vantage executed or caused to be executed at least 74 secret side agreements.

26. Between 1991 and 1997, Lewis and Vantage have submitted or caused to be submitted hundreds or thousands of Forms 3602 containing certifications that mailings covered by secret side agreements were not cooperative mailings. Each such certification was a false or fraudulent statement or record. A sample of the Forms 3602 submitted by Vantage during this period is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

27. Lewis and Vantage had actual knowledge that each such certification was false or fraudulent or acted in deliberate ignorance or reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the certifications.

28. Lewis and Vantage made or caused to be made such false or fraudulent statements or records in order to conceal, avoid or decrease an obligation to pay or transmit money to the Government, namely postage fees at the proper rate.

29. Between 1991 and 1997, Lewis and Vantage have caused millions of mailpieces covered by secret side agreements to be mailed at the nonprofit rate. In so doing, Vantage has concealed, avoided, or decreased an obligation to pay money to the Government.

30. If the Postal Service had been aware of the secret side agreements executed by Vantage, the Postal Service would not have permitted mailings covered by those secret side agreements to be entered at the nonprofit rate. The least expensive rate at which the Postal Service would have permitted such mailings to be entered would have been the standard rate, which is approximately one-half the nonprofit rate.

31. The United States has suffered monetary damages as a result of the conduct described above.

COUNT I
False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3729(a)(7)
Presenting False or Fraudulent Claims

32. The plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

33. The defendants submitted false or fraudulent statements to the Postal Service at various times from 1991 until 1997, the precise number of which shall be determined through discovery and established at trial.

34. The defendants knowingly presented or caused to be presented to the United States Government false or fraudulent statements for the purpose of concealing an obligation to pay or transmit money to the Government in violation of 31 U.S.C. § 3729(a)(7).

35. As a result of the defendants' conduct set forth in this Count, the United States suffered actual damages.

COUNT II
Common Law Fraud

36. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

37. The certifications on Forms 3602 that certain mailings were not cooperative were misrepresentations of material fact.

38. The defendants caused these misrepresentations to be made with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard for their truth.

39. The United States, acting in reliance on Vantage's misrepresentations, accepted less money from the defendants than the defendants actually owed.

40. As a result of the defendants' conduct, the United States has been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT III
Unjust Enrichment

41. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

42. As a result of the conduct described in the foregoing paragraphs, the defendants concealed an obligation to pay or transmit money to the Government.

43. As a result of the conduct set forth in the foregoing paragraphs, the defendants have been unjustly enriched at the expense of the United States, under circumstances dictating that, in equity and good conscience, the obligation to pay or transmit money to the Government should be satisfied.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the United States, demands that judgment be entered in its favor against defendants on Counts I, II and II of the Complaint, as follows:

1. On Count I (False Claims Act; Presentation of False Claims) against defendants Henry R. Lewis and Vantage Travel Service, Inc., for treble the amount of the United States's actual damages, plus civil penalties of not less than $5,000 and not more than $10,000 for each of the false claims presented or caused to be presented, plus post-judgment interest and costs;

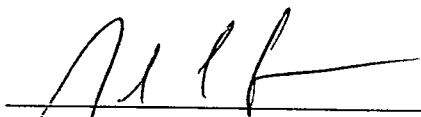

2. On Count II (Common Law Fraud) against defendants Henry R. Lewis and Vantage Travel Service, Inc., for the amount by which the United States has been damaged as a result of the defendants' fraud, plus pre- and post-judgment interest and costs;

3. On Count III (Unjust Enrichment) against defendants Henry R. Lewis and Vantage Travel Service, Inc., for the amount by which the defendants have been unjustly enriched, plus pre-and post-judgment interest and costs;

4. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable.

Subsequent proceeds will be applied to the program cost. Once these costs are paid in full then all future proceeds will go to The Ohio Scottish Rite.
- (B) In the event that proceeds from the program are insufficient to cover the expenses, then Vantage Studios shall have the right to extend the program and mail to the known contributors until such shortfall is eliminated.
- (C) To prevent The Ohio Scottish Rite from reporting any financial liability, Vantage Studios agrees not to invoice The Ohio Scottish Rite until sufficient funds are collected to cover the invoice.

This letter supercedes the payment method described in paragraph six (6) of this Agreement and will serve to affirm our mutual understanding of the financial arrangements associated with the greeting card fund-raising program.

GENERAL RELEASE

This General Release is made as of this 11th day of February, 1998, by Laurence A. Saklad.

PREMISES

WHEREAS, Saklad was an employee of Vantage Travel Service, Inc. ("Vantage") from on or about January 27, 1992 to on or about September 23, 1992.

WHEREAS, Henry R. Lewis is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Vantage (collectively, "Defendants").

WHEREAS, on or about March 18, 1994, Laurence A. Saklad ("Saklad" or "Plaintiff") commenced an action in Middlesex Superior Court, Civil Action No. 94-1629, by filing a complaint against the Defendants based on, inter alia, alleged employment discrimination.

WHEREAS, an entry of final judgment was entered, with the assent of Plaintiff, in favor of Vantage on June 12, 1997.

WHEREAS, Defendants have denied and continue to deny that any of Plaintiff's alleged claims have merit and have denied and continue to deny that Vantage or Lewis discriminated against the Plaintiff, engaged in any wrongdoing towards him, or incurred any legal liability whatsoever.

WHEREAS, Plaintiff has been advised and represented by Vincent G. Campanella, a member of the Bar of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in connection with his claims against Defendants and the possible resolution of such claims.

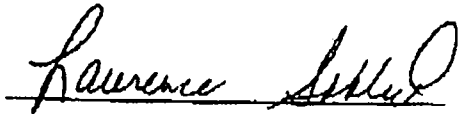

WHEREAS, to avoid further expense, distraction and conflict, the parties to this Agreement now desire to resolve amicably the claims Plaintiff has asserted, and any and all existing and potential claims by Plaintiff against Lewis, Vantage, or their related entities, successors, or assigns, as described more completely below.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the Settlement Agreement between the parties and for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

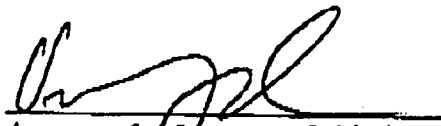

With the exception of any claims arising out of the performance or non-performance of any obligation set forth in the Settlement Agreement between the parties, Plaintiff, on his own behalf, and on behalf of his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, hereby fully releases and discharge, and covenants not to sue, file administrative charges, or make any claims, against Lewis and Vantage and any of their past, present or future directors, trustees, officers, agentes, attorneys, employees, representatives, insurers, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, related entities, insurers, heirs executors, successors, or assigns (hereinafter individually and collectively referred as "Releasees") from and with respect to any and all claims, demands, charges, liabilities, actions, causes of action, and suits, whatsoever of every name and nature, in law or equity, whether know or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, and whether or not concealed or hidden, which Plaintiff has, may have, or may have had against Releasees, from the beginning of time, including without limitation any and all claims arising out of or directly or indirectly related to his employment with Vantage and his relationships with Lewis. Plaintiff understands and acknowledges that the claims released in this paragraph include, but are not limited to, any claims that were or could have been asserted in Civil Action No. 94-1629.
